Prize money as indicated. Prize money to be collected from the Secretary's Office after 3:00pm.

NB Exhibitors to include stamped self-addressed envelope for return of exhibit numbers or email: clareaghosc@gmail.com.

Alternatively numbers may be collected from Show Office, refer front of book for office hours and contact details. Exhibit numbers must accompany individual entries.

Exhibits must be staged by 8:30am on day of show - late entries may be accepted at convenor's discretions. Exhibits can be left at Secretary's office prior to show day. The Show Society will hold no responsibility, but will take all care of exhibits left at office.

Exhibits can be collected after 5pm accompanied by entry confirmation sheet

Jams and pickles etc. to be in glass jars.

Max 500g

Clear jam covers preferred

Screw lids acceptable but must be marked with matching exhibit number

Clearly marked and dated

Check that all preserves jar lids are sealed securely

Not to be sealed with paraffin wax

Sauces

Glass bottles

Screw lid

Clearly marked and dated

Dried Fruit

Must be in a resealable container

Exhibits must not be re-bottled

Use of frozen fruit permitted

Judges reserve the right to open exhibits

Single entries within a class will be judged on their merit

Any exhibit that shows signs of mould, contamination etc will be disqualified

Presentation of jars (ie cleanliness etc) will be taken into account when being judged

Tip: When potting delicate flavoured jams etc. consider the container's previous use especially as the jams etc. can be tainted by the screw lid residue. Therefore, clear jam covers are preferable for exhibiting.
